

Vasavi College Of Engineering
Department Of Computer Science & Engineering
A Report on Seminar by Mr. Krishnam Raju on "Communication Skills and Career Planning for Engineers" by Mr. Krishnam Raju

A seminar on "Communication Skills and Career Planning for Engineers" was delivered by Mr. Krishnam Raju, Director, Conduira Guntur on Aug 31st, 2012 for the students of 3/4 CSE A & B in the seminar hall, Ramanujan Block.

The objectives of the session were to emphasize on the career choices that an engineering graduates needed be clear with in order to climb the ladder of success and to convey that the individual should follow a career path which would uplift their personality.

Speaker has started the session with importance of making a final call to decisions to be taken in regard to the choice of pursuing higher education, followed by a alerting note that the students pursuing third year are in the crucial period of their career, where in the students are expected to have a clear idea about the action plan to be executed after the completion of final year.

Speaker has expressed his views that an individual can sustain in respectable heights through continuous hard work, disciplined planning, timely execution of the same and he further added that effective communication skills would be an added advantage to reach greater heights in once career.

Speaker has further added that an individual must have a growing personality beyond academics, must possess the ability to do smart work & an ability to fight for ones dreams which would set an individual apart from the crowd.

Speaker has also shared statistics of the IT Industry and ups & downs in volatile IT markets was presented unambiguously which has helped students to understand the uncertain situations experienced by Technology Market in recent years by acknowledging the statistics of Technology Market.

Finally, he concluded by narrating a statement that an individual must realize their strengths & shortcoming and plan according to over the once short coming.