

Vasavi College of Engineering

Ibrahimbagh -31

Department of Computer Science & Engineering

A Report on “Career Guidance Session “ by Mr. Ravi Chandra Conducted on Sept 21st,2013

(Conducted under – Co-curricular Activity)

A Career Guidance Session was delivered by Mr. Ravi Chandra Prodduturi for the students of BE 3/4 CSE on Sept 21st,2013.

Mr. Ravi Chandra graduated from IIT, Hyderabad and M.S from The Duke University. He is presently working as Business Analyst at Orbitz Solutions, USA.

The objectives of the session were

- To convey the action plan an ideal engineering student has to follow.
- To convey what crucial decisions are to be taken up by students for an ideal career.
- How to prepare an effective resume & cover letter.
- To convey interview mannerism.

Mr. Ravi Chandra started off the session by narrating his journey right from schooling to being employed by orbitz solutions and what crucial decisions has been taken at right time in his career.

Later speaker moved on with the discussion in regard to the technical skills , soft skills , behavior, managerial and competency skills required for getting through the interview process.

Mr. Ravi Chandra has shared that 3rd & 4th year is most crucial period for budding engineer & career decisions should done taken by into account the interests of an engineering student individual.

Do's and Don'ts were discussed in detail for effective & flaw less resume and attractive cover letter.

Speaker has advised students to browse the profile of company and recent news about the company prior to interview drive.

Speaker has also shared few frequently asked questions and advised students to prepare convincing answer to those questions.

Speaker has concluded session by sharing his e-mail details with the students.