

Vasavi College of Engineering

Department of Computer Science and Engineering

A Report on Session on “Personality Enhancements” delivered by Mohammed Abdullah on Mar 15th,2013

A Career guidance session on “Personality Enhancement” was delivered by Mohammed Abdullah, Director of Conduira Education and Training Services, Vishakhapatnam for the students of 3/4 CSE on Mar 15th,2013.

The speaker with lot of enthusiasm delivered his journey in brief right from schooling from a government school to a successful Co-founder of Conduira Limited.

The objective of the session was to acquaint with the skill set students need to possess before they attend placements. As attending an interview for a job is not just about being pro in subjects, but one has to consider lot of other things, which many tend to oversee or neglect.

Mr. Abdullah started the session with lots of positive energy and took over the complete attention of all the student audiences present in the Seminar Hall throughout the session. Keeping in mind the present recession scenario into consideration speaker has stressed that in order to get a deserving job one has to excel both in Academic and Communication Skills.

He narrated few key points which interviewers usually look for.

- One of the important parameter on which Success of interview is depends is confidence level of a candidate, the level of confidence reflects in the body language of a person and as there is a strong connection between English language and confidence. People good at English language tend to appear more confident in expressing their thoughts.
- One can experience the true character of an individual under pressure situation for eg interviews. In order to overcome pressure situations one has to build higher confidence levels.
- One has to concentrate beyond the academic subjects being taught in curriculum.
- Up-gradation of knowledge is the key to success in the present condition. “People with higher knowledge and good communication skills will succeed, whereas, the mediocre or people with high knowledge and less communication skills have less chances of success,” he added.

Mr. Abdullah stressed that, “Past is past so never regret on bad past but present makes a foundation for future so work at your best in present to make your future bright”.

Giving details on skill sets required for interviews,

- Understand your weaknesses and strengths. When it comes to comparing oneself with others so it is always good to compare our strengths with other weakness because it boots up our confidence and never demean oneself by comparing our weakness and others strengths. Talk more of strengths and avoid talking of your weaknesses until asked for.
- Bring the interviewer to your strong areas.
- Showcase your positive qualities with the right usage of words is very essential.

Mr. Abdullah concluded session by conveying few very important points one has to focus on decent dress code, mannerism of hand shaking , greeting people and sitting postures ,final but not the least one has to carry a charming smile as it make lot of difference.

Mr Abdullah pointed out that following

- Interview is nothing but a scenario where you are trying to sell yourself. One should be able to communicate, what he or she can do for the recruiting company, we get only two minutes to sell our degree and those two minutes are more than sufficient to express yourself.
- One has to prepare well on the subjects and do some homework about the recruiting company, before the interview date.

